The Trinity and its Fallacies

Christianity, the largest religion in the world, with billions of people upon this Deen.

Introduction on Christianity:

Christians believe in something called the holy trinity; this consists of:

The Father (God)

The Spirit (God in spiritual form)

The Son (God in human form)

However, there's Holes in the common cloth of knowledge of this impossible trinitary system.

To delve into this, we'll have to understand some things.

The trinity is commonly referred to as god himself, as all 3 of these gods create 1 god.

However, let's look into why this is impossible.

Describing Jesus himself as God would give the father a certain rank in power which isn't possible as God is described to be all-powerful, this can't work solely on the fact that handing Jesus the rank of a god cannot happen. The trinity lies on the understanding that All 3 of these members are equal, or not equal. However, this is impossible on both ends of this problematic trinity.

1. If All members of the trinity were to be equal, then Jesus would not die (even for 3 days, See Matthew 12:40) Jesus would not pray to the father (Luke 6:12, John 20:17, 1 John 5:19), And Lastly, Blasphemy Against Jesus is forgivable, but Blasphemy against the Holy Spirit id unforgivable. (Luke 12:10).
2. The way to understand them being on separate ranks of ability is that God has a high rank in a metaphorical triangle, (God in this scenario being Holy Spirit and The Father.) but Jesus being all the way down but saying that a deity with power over everything has a rank is an understatement. Jesus should have a low rank, or a rank similar to a prophet, as he was a messenger (Malachi 3:1), if Jesus has a rank, then it would mean that God has a rank as-well, which would mean that God would lack in categories of existence. (God can't have a rank of infinity, Infinity is a none-existent number.) if you say that God has a rank exceeding billions upon trillions upon gazillions, you would be saying that, theoretically, God can't do some things.

2 Corinthians 4:4 NIV: Satan is described as the god of our world. Which would render the trinity incorrect as it would mean that God doesn't have power over this world.

Another thing is that if God is not God without Jesus, does that mean in those 33-40 years that Jesus lived, that God was incomplete in itself? Think of it as a circle in which existence flows through each goal of God, when one goal isn't there, Reality would begin to shatter in on itself, as we can see in John 1:1-18, Jesus was there the whole time, which would mean that the already defined state of the trinity would be disrupted if Jesus were to be put into a human physical form, it would change the whole trinitarian system.

If we look at Matthew 9, We can see that a man who cannot walk was brought to Jesus, after 2 verses, we can see that it says the following: Some teachers of the Law of Moses said to themselves, "Jesus must think he is God!" But Jesus knew what was in their minds, and he said, "Why are you thinking such evil things?

End of The Trinity and its Fallacies Start of Problematic Verses in the Bible

I can guarantee if you can ask any Christian if Christianity is a peaceful religion, they will say that the bible is peaceful, and then Bring up Quran Verses. What they don't know is that the bible has some of the most gruesome and brutal verses I have ever seen in any book.

1. 1 Samuel 15:3: I bet you a Christian would tell you that this verse is justified because of who the Amalekites are, but if you look at the verse, you'll see that this is going overboard, no matter who they were. It states to kill their infants (Infants are Aged 0-1 Years Old) and Children. to kill their men and women (1 Timothy 3:11) and they're Animals.
2. Deuteronomy 22:27-29: If a woman is to be raped by a man, her dad is to be paid 50 shekels of silver, and he is never to leave her, for he has violated her. Which is horrible on its own.
3. Deuteronomy 21:10-14: states if you are in war and you see a girl who you find beautiful, you can take her for a month, after that you can have intercourse with her and get married to her, then after your done you can leave her.

4. Matthew 10:34: Jesus didn't come to bring peace? Christians say Islam was spread by the sword, but their books say it as clear as a star in the night sky?
5. Luke 19:27: if someone didn't Accept Jesus, then Execute them right in front of him.
6. Exodus 21:20-21: If a slave dies instantly after you hit him or her, you're to be punished, if it takes a day or two, then there is no punishment for this.
7. Hosea 13:16: I see Christians disagree with abortions but agree with this?? Cut open the stomachs of pregnant women, but Abortion is horrible.
8. Deuteronomy 21:18-21: if a child is stubborn, you are to get every man in the town/village and stone him.
9. 2 Corinthians 4:4: if someone is not Christian, then they are kept from the religion.

End of Problematic Verses in the Bible

Start of Debunking Common Claims against Islam

Matthew 7:15: Christians use this verse to say that Muhammad PBUH was a false prophet, dressed in sheep clothes, this would be a fair point to make, however, 3 chapters and 1 verse later, his Disciples (Including Matthew and more, See Matthew 7:2) are described as sheep among wolves. To make the assumption that a false prophet is described to be dressed in Sheeps Clothing, it would also make you assume that the 12 disciples are false prophets.

Aisha was 6 years old at the time of marriage: the age of someone was counted after the age of puberty, (Sahih al-Bukhari 295, 297, 7549), she also reached the height of Muhammad's Shoulders. (Sahih Muslim 892 f), also, if you apply the same logic, then Isaac Married Rebecca at 3, (See <https://discover-the-truth.com/2016/11/14/was-rebekah-3-10-years-old-when-married-off-to-isaac/>), which would mean that child marriage is a fair thing in Christianity, however Aisha wasn't a child.

Al-Suyuti (6/395): this Hadith is Da'if and in wrong Hadith format, Al-Suyuti was a great hadith narrator, but this lie was made up in his name.

End of Debunking Common Claims against Islam

Start of Authenticity of Bible vs Quran:

Authenticity on Bible by Scholars:

Dale B. Martin says: "The Four Gospels were published anonymously... they seem to have been written with no author's names attached. We don't know how or when these names were attached to these gospels, that is lost to history."

Donald Guthrie says: "Most scholars, however, reject apostolic authorship."

George Dunbar Kilpatrick (The Origins of the Gospel) says: "Again our Gospel is not by Matthew the Apostle."

David E. Aune says: The Four Gospels were Written anonymously between A.D 70 and 100 and assembled into a collection about A.D 125.)

Authenticity on Quran by Christian Scholars:

Thomas Walker Arnold says: "There is a general agreement by both Muslim and non-Muslim scholars that the text of this recension substantially corresponds to the actual utterances of Muhammad himself."

Nabia Abbott says: "That is a fact which was even acknowledged by Arthur Jeffery, who was attempting, in his study, to prove the corruption of the Qur'anic text. He said, "practically all the early Codices and fragments that have so far been carefully examined, show the same type of text, such variants as occur being almost always explainable as scribal errors."

+ more I haven't narrated here.

More Authentication facts on the Bible:

- There are No First Century Manuscripts of the bible, however the Quran does which read the exact same, if no that, then "there are no notable variants of the Quran." - Louis Lebrois.
- Modern Consensus ALL admit that most books in the New Testament remain completely anonymous, The Quran was traced back to Prophet Muhammad and the Sahaba, and the Tabi'un.
- The earliest manuscripts of Most narrations of the Bible: 7th being the earliest, and 15th being the latest century. (Figure 1)

Christians who agree on inauthenticity of the Bible: Bart Ehrman, Richard Carrier, John Dominic Crossan, Robert M. Price, Paula Fredriksen.

Mark has a Man-made ending: The original ending of Mark's gospel is lost to time, the earliest found manuscripts of this gospel end with the Women running from the Tomb of Jesus, further on, manuscripts were discovered where an ending was found, of Jesus appearing to the disciples. In the Codex Vaticanus and Codex Sinaiticus (Oldest and most reliable manuscript of the New Testament), it ends at Mark 16:8. However later manuscripts were discovered which add Mark 16:9-20. There is no manuscriptal evidence for Verses 9-20 of Mark 16 before the 9th century. (Refer to Figure 1 on Bible Authenticity.) The style of Mark 16:9-20 was found to be in a different style of writing than what it was before.

Is the Codex Sinaiticus reliable?? No, but it is still considered the most reliable manuscript.

Papyrus 75, an even older manuscript of the Bible (200AD) (below)

, Did not include Luke 23:17, however on the site and original manuscript for Codex Sinaiticus it said “αναγκην δε ειχεν απολυνειν αυτοις κατα εορτην ινα”

(Luke 23:17 in original manuscript)

An older manuscript (Papyrus 75) did not include Luke 23:17, but the newer one (Codex Sinaiticus) did include it... How reliable is the bible??

Proof the Qur'an is from God, from a Christian perspective:

Some Christians believe that Muhammad stole verses from the Bible (Sahih al-Bukhari 15 = Matthew 10). Muhammad could not have copied from Jesus; Muhammad was an Illiterate man who couldn't read or write in Arabic, his home tongue. There was nobody who could speak Hebrew or Aramaic around him to translate the bible. The area of the creation of the bible is Nazareth, which is more than 1830km away from Mount Hira (Jabal Al-Nour). How did they have the same message and same prophets? How would God have known that Jesus would be part of a trinity if there was no way to get any information of the bible? 42:11 Quran “He is All-Hearing, All-Seeing.”

Muhammad must have known Hebrew, Syriac, and Greek, must have had a library in which would include the Texts of Talmud, the gospels, various prayer books, decisions of church councils, works of the church fathers, must have had an oral version of the bible in Arabic (Earliest Arabic Bible found was in 10th century), and must have understood everything about the bible. - Abdul Rahman Badawi

End of Authenticity of Bible vs Quran

Start of Miracles of Quran and ahadith

1. In the Quran, it's said in 23:12-14 “ We created man out of the extract of clay, then We made him into a sperm-drop, then We placed it in a safe depository, then We made this drop into a alaqah (leech, suspended thing, blood clot), then We made the alaqah into a mudghah (chewed-like substance), then We made the mudghah into bones, then We clothed the bones with flesh”

The described process is the exact same as how a human is formed.

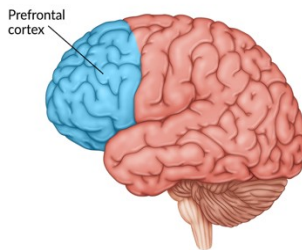

Alaqah = leech (A human embryo looks like a leech)

Alaqah = suspended thing (A human embryo is suspended in the womb)

Alaqah = blood clot (the appearance of an embryo and its sacs is similar to that of a blood-clot)

2. The Quran speaks of a naseyeh/forelock (front of head) as a lying sinful area. (96:15-16) the naseyeh in general is responsible for planning, imitating good and sinful behaviour, and for telling lies.

3. 15:22: And we have sent the pollinating winds: Pollination occurs through the winds

4. Al-Adab Al-Mufrad 422: Ibn 'Abbas said, "There are 360 joints and each of them owes sadaqa every single day.

End of Miracles of Quran and ahadith Start of ISIS and if they are good or bad for Islam

Simply put, Even Muslims don't agree with ISIS. They have had a significant impact on Islam in a bad way. Even Muslims don't claim them as Muslims. For they are unbelievers. (Sunan Ibn Majah 173, Sunan Ibn Majah 176) They describe themselves as a mix between Khawarijites and Murji'ites, who follow Sunni Salafi Wahabi Qutbism.

To look at what this means, let's look at this:

Sunni - Main branch of Islam

Salafi - Someone who follows the Salaf al-Salih. (Sahaba, Tabi'un, Tabi'at Tabi'un)

Wahabi - Someone who follows Muhammad ibn 'Abd al-Wahhab.

Qutbi - Someone who follows Sayyid Qutb, who is believed to have started Radical Islam.

Khawarij:

We need to go into more depth about this.

They are:

Not understanding of Islam (Sahih al-Bukhari 3344)

They kill believers and spare idolators (Sahih al-Bukhari 3344)

They go to the extreme in religion until they abandon it (Sahih al-Bukhari 3611)

They are instantly going to hell (Sunan Ibn Majah 173)

Murji'ite - not that bad, this is the only calm side of ISIS

WAS ISIS A GOOD OR BAD THING FOR ISLAM?

After 9/11, one of the most horrific tragedies in all of America, Hate Crimes against Islam grew 1617% percent, there were Unjust attacks of Iraq and Afghanistan, no Iraqis or Afghans were found to have been involved in the tragedy. US And its Allies have dropped 360K bombs since 2001, Estimated amount daily is 50.

Because of what 1 terrorist group did, Muslims fight for their life daily 24/7.

End of ISIS and if they are good or bad for Islam

Start of Conclusion

The bible is a book in which I believe was the Word of God before corruption and errors were added to it. It is a book in which I can personally find wisdom from if I looked but I haven't tried yet, I respect Christians the same as I respect Muslims and would defend a Christian the same way I would defend a Muslim.

However one thing I didn't add In this book is The mistakes in which I discovered in the bible. I will include these now.

James 5 3rd verse says "Your gold and silver are corroded. Their corrosion will testify against you and eat your flesh like fire. You have hoarded wealth in the last days." however taking one look at google or any source, you'll see gold cannot corrode or rust (like in other translations).

Mark 4:31 says "It is like a mustard seed, which is the smallest of all seeds on earth." However through another google search or checking any source you can find that Orchid Seeds are in fact much smaller than a Mustard seed.
